THIS WAS MY PRIMARY IDEA, I NEED TO PRACTICE MORE WITH API's but this semester was a tough one but I will make sure I finish this project during the summer with all the things I have left is true that I tried to make the minimum requirement not being able to finish it all like I waned because of Math exams that are not giving me a break...

So for me I was able to use json because to take API for soccer they asked me to pay and it was limited so I wasn't trying to go there yet...

What game u want me to look up?...

Im going to fix chicho for sure ...

welcome to lastminutewin

Where betting actually makes sense. Forget scrolling through 99 stats you don't care about.

We give you what matters: the real news, the actual game that's happening right now, and your personal AI homie Chico, who's smarter than your group chat and won't ghost you mid-bet.

Want to know who's hot, who's not, and what play makes the most sense? Chico's got you. No fluff. No fake guru vibes.

Just the tools to help you make a smart call — and maybe brag a little when you win at the buzzer.

I did an about page ....

This isn't your average jersey plug.

The lastminutewin Shop is for the real ones — fans and bettors repping their teams with pride. We've got the freshest soccer jerseys so you can bet smart, flex hard, and look sharp doing it.

Not able to get data for this one either ...

I was honestly thinking for a full website so I can use it for a project when I apply for jobs in my portfolio as a project but I will work on this this summer
